

Greve Festival Wind Program

All levels of ability are invited to attend the Flute, Clarinet and Chamber Music course in Greve-in-Chianti, Italy. Spend time in a relaxed atmosphere to enhance your skills, review fundamentals, explore repertoire and perform chamber concerts in the beautiful Chianti region of Tuscany.

Students will perform daily as individuals and in group classes. Several private lessons and chamber music sessions are included in the tuition. In addition to chamber music performances possible participation as section players in the opera orchestra may be offered to some students.

Music from the standard repertoire including orchestral excerpts and studies are appropriate for lessons and classes. This is a valuable opportunity for students to focus on works in progress, or to prepare audition materials for graduate school or competition.

Flute class topics will include:

- ◆ Tone Development
- ◆ Melodic Line, Harmonic Rhythm, and Phrasing Rules.
- ◆ Color and Dynamics.
- ◆ Building Technique.
- ◆ Practice solutions and efficient use of practice time.
- ◆ Performance and audition preparation.
- ◆ Pedagogy topics including teaching young children will also be offered.

Clarinet class topics will include:

- ◆ Tone Development.
- ◆ Practice solutions and efficient use of practice time.
- ◆ Building Technique through use of Etudes and Repertoire.
- ◆ Performance and audition preparation.
- ◆ Reed selection and care.
- ◆ Pedagogy topics including teaching young children will also be offered.

Participants may enroll for the full 3 week course or elect a pro-rated 2 week option for the flute class. The Clarinet class will be offered for two weeks only June 20 through July 4.

